Confronted By His Wife, Man Pleads Guilty To Bigamy

FLORENCE. Ala., Sept. 22. (Spl.)—
L. H. Thomason, who has been confined in the Florence, jail since the first of June under a charge of bigamy, and who has strenuously denied his guilt, went into court late Monday after having seen wife No. 1, who arrived Sunday from Brownwood, Tex., and pleaded guilty. By agreement with the prosecution he accepted two years in the penilentiary.

Wife No. 1, accompanied by Mayor Easten and Chief of Police Cobb, visited Thomason at the jail, When brought face to face with her Mrs. Thomason, in tears, exclaimed 'Lie Lee' How could you treat me this way?" To which Thomason replied: 'You are not my wife; you belong to Will Morton.' He denied when arrested that he had ever been marrised in Texas. About one year ago he was married to Miss Scott, of East Florence, a member of a good family, Wife No. 1 will return to Texas at once. They have three children. Thomason's father came here from Austin, Tex.

Hold Man On Charge Of Beating Youth To Death With Club

HARRISBURG, Ark., Sept. 22. (Spl.)

H. E. A. Johnson, residing on his farm near the Craighead county line, was placed in jall here late Tuesday, charged with the murder of a youth employed on his farm.

It is reported that Johnson heat the youth to death with a club. The local physician was called Tuesday morning to Johnson's home. Johnson saying a tree had fallen on the youth and crushed him. On arriving the physician found the boy dead, and after making an examination, called the sheriff. An inquest was held and the verdict was that the lad had been beaten to death. Johnson was then arrested.

It is said the boy had agreed to work four years for Johnson for 28 acres of land, but later became dissatisfied and agreed to work for 50 cents a day. The trouble js said to have grown out of the last agreement.

MAKES GRASS CUTTING AN EASY OPERATION

WABASH, Ind., Sept 21 (By International News Service.)—Here's a Wabash father who has solved the problem of painless grass-cutting. Being the parent of a live-wire 3-year-old son, this doting parent constructed a miniature fire-wagon over his lawn mower and attached a reet of garden hose. The truck has a bell, with cord extending to the end of the mower handle. andle. Now the neighbors' offspring vie with fond father's boy for the privilege

But the scheme has its drawbacks, the parent inventor admits. So scalous are the juvenile "firemen" that the grass has literally been shaved off of some portions of the lawn.

Reciting his story as to how he was assaulted and beaten by Patroiman G. A. Coffee, on last Saturday night while waiting for a taxicab, D. K. Munson, an Hawaiian musician employed at Janssen's restaurant, appeared before the details of the incident. He was advised by Mayor Paine to take the marter up with the commissioner of fire and pofee and prefer charges against the officer.

Abraham Horn, appearing as attorney for Munson, asked that his client be permitted to state his case. Munson, taking the floor declared that he and a party of friends had come from the China Inn about 1 o'clock Saturday night and went to the corner of Main and Monroe to get a taxicab. Munson went into Janssen's for a moment and when he reached the corner found two policemen talking to the party in which there were two ladies.

He had not spoken to either officer, he said, and had demeaned himself as was proper when a car drove up. At this time, he said, the officer struck him in the jiw with his fist and at the same time hit him over the head with a club, Munson started to run and as he did so the officer followed but when he found that Munson was distancing him threw his club which struck Munson on the foot.

Horn and his client declared that they had been to police headquarters but were unable to get any satisfaction and had then appealed to the city commission. Mayor Paine advised them to take the matter up with the fire and police commissioner.

Several minor ordinances were passed on second and their reading; the bonds of Tony Bacigalupo as inspector of weights and measures and W. P. Shea as wharfmaster were received and approved.

Philadelphia, Pa. Do you wear glasses? Are you a victim of eye strain or other eye weaknesses? If so, you will be glad to know that according to Dr. Lewis there is real hope for you. Many whose eyes were failing say they have had their eyes restored through the principle of this wonderful free prescription. One man says, after trying it: "I was almost blind; could not see to read at all. Now I can read everything without any glasses and my eyes do not water any more. At night they would pain me dreadfully; now they feel fine all the time. It was like a miracle to me." A lady who used it says: "The atmosphere seemed hazy with or without glasses, but after using this prescription for fifteen days everything seems clear. I can even read fine print without glasses." It is believed that thousands who wear glasses can now discard them in a reasonable time and multitudes more will be able to strengthen their eyes so as to be spared Are you a victim of eye

Drop one Bon-Opto tablet in a fourth of a glass of water and allow to dissolve. With this liquid bathe the eyes two to four times daily. You should notice your eyes clear up perceptibly right from the start and inflammation will quickly disappear. If your eyes are bothering you, even a little, take steps to save them now before it is too late. Many hopelessly blind might have been saved if they had cared for their eyes in time.

NOTE: Another prominent physician to whem the above article was submitted, said: "Bon Opto is a very remarkable remedy. Its constituent ingredients are well known to eminent eye specialists and widely prescribed by them. The manufactures guarantee it to strengthen eyesight 50 per cent in one week's time in many instances or refund the money.
